Notes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The numerical figures in parentheses refer to course credit hours. The total number of credit hours for required courses amounts to 102; the minimum number of earned credit hours required for graduation is 128. The calculation of semester hours shall not include credit hours earned from General Education courses or History. First-year students may take any of the following to fulfill the University's foreign language requirement: (1) Freshman English; (2) other English courses offered by the English department; or (3) six course credit hours of an alternative second-language offered or accredited by the Language Center. Before being permitted to graduate, students must demonstrate their English proficiency either by reaching a threshold score in one of the English proficiency tests recognized by the Language Center or by passing two semesters of Remedial English; credit hours thus earned may not be counted toward the minimum number required for a baccalaureate degree (for details, refer to the University's Implementation Procedures for Freshman Foreign Language Courses and Implementation Procedures for Remedial English Courses). The courses tabulated above must be taken from this Department and in the sequence specified by this
